As the world continues to witness dynamic shifts brought about by these technologies, it becomes imperative to foster collaborative platforms where ideas can be exchanged, challenges identified, and solutions crafted. It is with this vision that 2026 4th International Conference on Mechatronics, Control and Robotics (ICMCR) is set to be held in Tokyo, Japan, from March 20-22, 2026. It's co-sponsored by Jeju National University and IEEE, and hosted by Sensors and Systems Society of Singapore. Patrons are Memorial University and Fukuoka Institute of Technology. ICMCR 2026 is designed not merely as a conference, but as a crucible for innovation. It aims to bring together a melange of researchers, practitioners, and professionals from the industry, academia, and government. This unique amalgamation ensures a holistic understanding of the subject matter, where theoretical foundations meet practical applications.
